

Prayer for Vocations:

Loving and generous God, we are your people, the work of your hands. Jesus calls us to heal the broken-hearted, to dry the tears of those who mourn, to give hope to those who despair, and to rejoice in your steadfast love.

Grant to us faith-filled leaders who will embrace Christ's Mission of love and justice.

Bless the Church of the Diocese of Motherwell by raising up dedicated leaders from our families and friends who will serve your people as priests.

Inspire us to know you better and open our hearts to hear your call.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

We pray for the Sick: William McCardie; Fr Paddy Hughes C.M; James O'Connor; Fr Patrick Walsh; Canon Michael Walsh; Simon Johnson.

We remember all of those who have died recently: Anne Hemphill; Rose Quinn.

We pray for the Anniversary of: Frank Hilland.

St. Mary's Church, Lanark

22nd Sunday of the Year (B)

2nd September 2018

INTRODUCTION TO THE MASS The readings of today's Mass emphasise the difference between fulfilling religious obligations out of a sense of ritual or duty and truly living a religion of the heart. Jesus calls us to put our hearts where our mouths are.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading (Deut 4:1-2.6-8). The God we believe in is a God who is very near to us. This calls on us to live out our lives in accordance with the commandments God has given us to lead us on the path of true wisdom.

Responsorial Psalm: Lord, who shall be admitted to your tent?

Second Reading (Jas 1:17-18.21-22.27). Our response to God is shown by our responsibility for all God's people, especially for those most in need.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Your words are spirit, Lord, and they are life: you have the message of eternal life. Alleluia!

Gospel (Mk 7:1-8.14-15.21-23). The keeping of external laws does not in itself lead to God', our hearts have to be truly converted if we are to follow the way of Jesus.

Think Vocations: "Be doers of the word, and not merely hearers who deceive themselves." Jesus is the Word who calls you to serve Him in truth. Is He inviting you to priesthood or religious life? Call your diocesan Vocations Director or visit www.priestsforScotland.org.uk

FAITH IN FOCUS: WORTHLESS WORSHIP

Canon O'Gloom rubbed the sleep out of his Sunday morning eyes as he managed to open the church just before the first parishioners turned up for the 9 o'clock Mass. The beer cans, chip papers and confetti in the porch reminded him that he really must get round to organising some sort of cleaning rota now that no one was left from the old one.

At seven minutes past nine he beckoned to Eleanor White who put on a backing CD of the Entrance Song, "I rejoiced when I heard them say let us go to God's house". A few faithful bothered to join in but most just listened to the synthesised sound of the keyboard and the croaking of the music group led by Sid Montgomery. During the first reading the altar boy was sent off to go and get a taper to light the candles with. This came as a pleasant distraction from Cynthia Purejoy's mumbling from the Book of Lamentations. Thank God the microphone wasn't working.

Another blessing came when Canon O'Gloom announced he wasn't going to preach today because he knew everyone wanted to be off and away early so they could enjoy the beautiful weather.

Clyde Schnell took the collection with his usual aplomb. There was no procession of the gifts since Sunday communion always came from the tabernacle, and soon we were into the Eucharistic Prayer. Clyde continued passing the basket, oblivious that something greater than his own performance was taking place in the sanctuary area.

Josh Wilkins tried to take part in the proceedings but was sucked into crawling under the pews to retrieve the felt-tip pens that his little sister Emily dropped while filling in a colouring book of scenes from the Book of Exodus.

As the congregation came forward for communion they were treated to a rendition of the "Ride of the Valkyries" from Maria Gonzalez's mobile phone. A second collection to support retired nuns meant that Clyde stepped up to the plate once more before the congregation peeled out to "O, Lord, my God!"

It was then that Canon O'Gloom was struck by a phrase from today's gospel:

"This people honours me only with lip-service, while their hearts are far from me."
